Still They Come Due

July 1st I paid two more Matured Endowment Policies, one in town and one in Lyndonville. This makes a total of Eighty different matured policies that I have settled in a little over four years. Another one comes due in Kirby, Vt., Aug. 1st and Eleven more during 1914. Between 35 and 40 more will mature in 1915, all in my little "One Horse" agency.

Which all goes to show that I did some business for the good old State Mutual Life of Mass., 20 to 25 years ago at least. When does yours mature? It is a pleasure to show the records of this grand old Co. Can't I interest you?

DISCRIMINATING SMOKERS find our cigars so unusually good that they not only come back for more, but tell their friends of us as well.

THE CIGAR SMOKER whom we cannot satisfy has not appeared here yet. Perhaps you are he, though we doubt it.
Come and see, anyway. You must be a wonder if there isn't a cigar you'll like here.

HAVE SEEN VERMONT.

Two Widely Traveled Vermonters Have Toured Their Own State.
Last Sunday evening J. E. Buxton of Middletown Springs and W.
A. Lawrence of Bristol stopped at the Avenue House on their way to Burlington. These men have each served in the house of representatives and in the senate at Montpelier and formed a very pleasant acquaintance. Last winter they met in Florida and decided to supplement the extensive traveling each has done with an automobile tour this summer for "seeing Vermont." They had completed the tour of the east side of the state and went from here to Burlington. It is needless to say they have more appreciation of the state than ever before.

Mr. Buxton has a farm of 1,600 acres in Middletown Springs and has already set out 11,000 young apple trees. He expects to start an orchard of 20,000 trees as soon as he can.

Mr. Lawrence has been an active business man in Bristol and through his service at Montpelier has gained a large acquaintance throughout the state.

LITTLE POLITICAL TALK.
A Few Names Being Mentioned for Town Representative.
It certainly cannot be claimed that "things are fixed" this year in local politics as it is difficult to find men who will even talk about politics. A little talk has been heard about town representatives. The name of Joseph Fairbanks is being talked by some republicans while it has long been understood that Dr. J. D. Ba-chard has been directing and booming Gov. Fletcher for the purpose of receiving the election as town representative.
Among the progressives the names of John Rickaby and Robert E.
French are being mentioned.
No democratic names have yet been made public although Elisha May has been asked if he would be a candidate. He does not see his way clear at present.

ANNUAL SCHOOL REPORT.
The annual report of the public schools for the school year ending June 30, 1914, is published. The copies may be obtained at the town clerk's office.
Copies of this report together with a supplement giving full information in regard to the remodeled Summer Street School buildings will be distributed by the school children after school opens in the fall.

Next Monday a great show under the auspices of Co. D, First Infan-campus by a company of foreign artists. The attractions are almost too numerous to mention but the advertisement of the carnival will be sure to start the thirst for red lemonade and make the children anxious to have a day off. In this way local people will aid the local militia.

RAIL WAS CALLED

Henrietta Jones Failed To Appear In Court—Several Pleas Of Guilty—Two Sentenced.

When Caledonia county court opened Monday afternoon the case of State vs. Roger Goodheart and Henrietta Jones, charged with adultery, was called. Mr. Goodheart was present, but the Jones woman was not. An affidavit was presented saying she was unable to appear in court. The court did not seem convinced of this, and called the bail and issued a bench warrant for her arrest if her physical condition warranted it. Sheriff Worthen with two physicians visited the woman in Hardwick and Tuesday morning she was in the court room looking fairly healthy. The case was begun and will likely last through to-day. This case was tried last winter but the jury disagreed.

On Saturday the court heard the divorce cases of Gustavus J. Meyer vs. Guy R. E. Meader and the counter case, but no decision was given.

Many Criminals Plead.
Friday the St. Onge or Shanty case was finished when the jury returned a verdict for the plaintiff to recover $800. A large number of criminals were taken into court to plead. James Lambert of Danville and William E. Abbott of Barre, or anywhere else he happened to be, each pleaded guilty to the charge of rape. Lambert was sentenced to serve not less than a year or more than 18 months in the house of correction and Abbott was given the same time in state prison at Windsor.

Chas. F. Branch and Oscar Griggs pleaded guilty to the charge of burglary, but sentence was not pronounced.

Rush Gilbert was charged with forging a check on Richardson and Simpson of Waterford and of stealing a horse and carriage of F. N. Carr.
He pleaded not guilty to each charge.

Harry L. Jeffers and Hilma A.
Jeffers, who were charged with forging and passing checks in Newark each pleaded not guilty. It is not known when these cases will come to trial.

ALEXANDER STILL HERE.
Gov. Fletcher Desires to Have His Extradition Papers Honored.

Gov. Allen M. Fletcher was in town Friday inquiring into the case of Joseph E. Alexander, who has been in jail for several weeks following his arrest in Springfield, Mass., on the request of the New York authorities.

It will be remembered that extradition papers to take Alexander to Plattsburg, N. Y., were signed by Gov. Fletcher at the time of his arrest. An attempt was made to hold him here on a writ of habeas corpus which failed. Then his bondsmen, who have signed papers to the extent of $2,000 for his appearance at Chittenden county court for trial in a civil case charging fraud objected to his being taken out of the state, and he has remained here. The bondsmen fear that they would have to pay the bail if they fail to produce him in court.

Gov. Fletcher desires to have his papers honored because he fears New York authorities may retaliate in some way should the extradition of a prisoner from that state. R. W. Simonds represents the New York sheriff, and has not received final instruction from him as to what course to pursue. Should the New York authorities insist on taking him, the state would probably would be an effort to get him before a Vermont judge and secure a release for his bondsmen in the Vermont case.

AUTOMOBILE ACCIDENTS.
A Connecticut Car Climbed Bank on Eastern Ave.

A fresh coat of oil on Eastern avenue nearly caused a serious accident Monday morning when a Connecticut car which was running quite rapidly struck a particularly slippery place at the head of Cherry street and skidded up the bank. The driver with presence of mind headed the car directly up the bank by the Universalist church, and just above the Woman's Club house sign.
The sign and hydrant beside it prevented the car from over turning, and causing serious damage.

The car was owned by Mr. Corwin, who has been spending some time in Greensboro. The party did not stop after the accident but took the train for Connecticut.

Car Went Down Bank.
Edward Prevost had a narrow escape Sunday morning when in attempting to pass a car on lower Railroad street, he turned out too far, and his car went into the soft gravel at the edge of the road, and down the embankment below. Mr.
Prevost was not hurt, but his father, and two children for a short spin before church, and as he went down Railroad street there was a car ahead, running very slowly, which he wished to pass. He sounded his horn, but when they did not turn out he tried to pass, and slid off the bank. Though frightened, the occupants were uninjured, and the car suffered no damage.

WORKMAN'S NECK BROKEN.

Herbert Derusha Fatally Injured in Fall at New Opera House.

Herbert Derusha, 24 years old, fell from a ladder at the new opera house in the Avenue House block last Wednesday and broke his neck.
He was taken to Brightlook hospital where he died last Friday morning.
The body was taken to his home in Burlington for burial.

Mr. Derusha was employed by A.
L. Bragg, who is rebuilding the opera house, and started to descend a ladder. He hit his elbow against something and let go of the ladder with his other hand and fell backwards a distance of about 20 feet.
He landed on the boards with such force he broke through them and his neck was broken.

The paralysis caused by the fracture of the spine was not immediate, and with the help of other workmen Derusha was able to walk a short distance into the shade. He complained of a prickling in his legs and after a few hours he was paral-yzed clear up to the third rib where the fracture was located. He retained full possession of his mental faculties until about half a day before death when he began having convulsions.

When the opera house was built 25 years ago a workman was killed there by a similar fall.

Prohibition Party Convention.
The Prohibition party of Vermont will hold its biennial session in G.
A. R. hall, St. Johnsbury, on the 28th and 29th of this month. The chairman of the state committee, Dr.
L. W. Hanson of Montpelier is arranging an interesting program, and the sessions will be open to the public. It is expected that Rev. Wm.
Shaw of Montpelier, and Irving W.
Masters, secretary of the Massachusetts Prohibition committee will be on the list of speakers.

SIX INNINGS WITHOUT SCORE.
Hard Fought Battle Cut Short by Rain at Littleton.

What promised to be a battle royal was cut short by rain last Saturday, when the game at Littleton was stopped at the end of the sixth inning, with the score 0-0. A large crowd motored over from here to see the mighty Willard, and they were not disappointed as he seemed to have something on the ball, and only Witt could find it safely. But nature had plans other than providing a day for a ball game, and at the end of the sixth inning it was raining so hard that the game had to be called off. The features of the game were the capture of a long fly by J. Moore, and three one hand stops by Scott. The score:

WINS HONORS AS GOLF PLAYER.
E. M. Taft, Jr., won 78-15-63 at the Wollaston, Mass. Golf club last week.

Edmund Taft, formerly of St.
Johnsbury and now of Haverly, Mass., and a student at the St. Paul school at Concord, N. H., where he is captain of the golf team, won great honor at the open golf tournament held at the Wollaston Golf club last Wednesday. He won the gross prize with 78 as his round.
He also won the best net score, for with a handicap of 15 he was six strokes better than his nearest competitor for this prize. He was one of three to get 80 or better.
Francis Quimble, who played in his first open tournament since his return from abroad, scored 86.

A THIEF CAUGHT.
A man giving the name of Frank Smith, who followed the circus into town on Saturday last, stole a $20 bill out of the pocket of an employe at the Fairbanks barn. The police and sheriff were notified and Sheriff Worthen caught the man as he was about to take the west bound train on the St. J. & L. C. road. He had spent a part of the money for a suit of clothes, but the sheriff recovered the remainder.

MAY GET THE HOME

Commission Seems Favorably Impressed with the Weeks Farm For Feeble Minded Children.

Gov. A. M. Fletcher, who was here last week discussed with Dr.
W. J. Aldrich the purchase of the Charles Weeks farms for the location of the state home for feeble minded children, and it is expected the special commission will meet very soon to act upon the matter.
While it cannot be said yet what the decision will be it is evident the commission is quite favorably impressed with this site.

If it should be selected the buildings would be located on the high flat just beyond the federal fish hatchery. The ground for a siding has already been graded and a siding for the unloading of fuel and other supplies could be very easily supplied. The location is well drained and electric lights already go as far as the fish hatchery. The present farm buildings would be used for the farmer and employes of the institution.

TRADE IN VERMONT
Bradstreet's Weekly Report From Manufacturing Towns.

Bradstreet's Burlington office reports labor is fairly well employed as a whole and wholesale dealers in food stuffs report normal business.
Retail merchants report warm weather materials are moving well and indicate that general trade has been fairly active. Collections are still reported slow. The rains of the past ten days have improved hay crops to a large extent, as well as other crops. It is generally conceded that the hay crop this year will be below normal, but the outlook is improved over what was anticipated two weeks ago. The work of haying has been delayed to some extent, other crops are late. Manufacturers of turned wood novelties report an improvement in general trade. Manufacturers of parts for automobile trade, pumps and similar lines report the volume of business for the month so far is above normal. Some activity in summer travel is shown. Reports from Rutland indicate the manufacturing plants are reasonably well employed. Some improvement is noted in retail trade during the past week. The rains of the past week are said to have improved the crop conditions. At Bristol, work has been commenced in building a new creamery plant. The woodworking plants are well employed and report the volume of business receding is increasing. One of the business blocks recently destroyed by fire is being rebuilt. At Vergennes labor is fairly well employed. One of the plants there has been temporarily closed, is to resume work the coming week. Retail trade is fair but the summer hotel business is reported below normal, and what generally is for this season of the year.

Report from Bellows Falls states some damage has been done in that section by grasshoppers. The mills in that section are well employed.
The new clay plant in Bennington country is to commence active production August 1, 1914. At North Bennington the brush back business while reported a little quiet is said no more than is usual for the period.
The rains of the week have benefitted all kinds of crops. Brattleboro reports labor well employed and the merchants claim business at the stores is as good as is usual for the period.

SOCIAL EVENTS.

The Ladies' Circle of the Church of the Messiah were guests of Mrs.
W. J. Aldrich at her cottage at Joe's Pond Thursday, about 30 sat down to a picnic supper, the hostess serving coffee and ice cream. All enjoyed a very pleasant afternoon.

Owing to the hospitality of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Taft the Outlook club had a most enjoyable time at their annual picnic Wednesday, July 8. Over sixty sat at the tables which were spread on the lawn. After dinner the time was spent in visiting and taking pictures. Many thanks are due Mr. and Mrs. Taft for their kindness and much credit is also due the committee in charge, Mrs.
Moffat, Mrs. Harvey, Mrs. Park
Mrs. Wilkie.

Mrs. Earl Wright entertained about 15 of her friends at the home of Mr. and Mrs. George Wright Tuesday evening. The evening was very pleasantly spent and refreshments were served.
